Re: Seattle Greater Floors

To whom it may concern,

As the owner of a high end general contracting company I am very particular about who we partner with. We are 100% referral based and our subcontractor and suppliers are a direct representation of who we are and what kind of service we desire to provide.

Our philosophy in regards to those we partner with is one of trust and relationship. We feel strongly that we are only as good as the subcontractors we use. They are in many cases the day to day face of who we are. We have a high level of trust with our clients and that trust is either strengthened or weakened by those we partner with.

We have worked with Regan Miyamura for many years. Greater Seattle Floors has been a great fit for our company. They share the high level of service and a core philosophy that makes our partnership a natural fit. They have always stood behind their work and have worked very hard to assure that we and our clients have received the best service possible.

We look forward to many years of projects and opportunities together and are please to have them as a critical partner as we continue to grow and provide our services to future clients.

We highly recommend them as a flooring and hard surface contractor and are confident those that work with them will be satisfied with their decision to add them to the team.

Sincerely,

Jason CP Jarman
Owner
